

First Nation, Métis, and Inuit Voluntary Self-Identification Form (students under 18 years of age)

All parents/guardians of First Nation, Métis, and Inuit students who are under 18 years of age have the right to voluntarily self-identify. The Board collects this confidential student self-identification data for the purpose of student achievement, determining the success of current programs, and providing information for decision-making regarding the support, development and provision of programs and services required to ensure the success of all students.

More information can be found in the Board's Administrative Procedure 321 - First Nation, Métis and Inuit Voluntary Self-Identification, available on our website at <https://pvnccdsb.on.ca>. A fillable .pdf of this form is also available.
