ACTION REQUIRED:1.0 How to Deal with an Issue in the Workplace

If you are experiencing issues with the conduct or behaviour of one of your co-workers, there are some things that may be done in advance of filing a harassment complaint.

a. Speak to the Person

If you feel able to do so, advise the person the behaviour is unwelcome verbally or in written communication to stop the behaviour. In many cases, when the offender is aware their conduct is unwelcome and will not be tolerated the behaviour will stop. Harassment and discrimination negatively affects everyone. Bystanders are also encouraged to speak up and ask an offender to stop.

Some of the things an employee may say to another employee that might stop the behaviour include:

- I don't want you to do/say that
- Please stop doing or saying that
- It makes me uncomfortable when you do/say that
- I don't find it funny when you do/say that

b. Document the Conduct

Take notes of the offensive conduct by writing down what happened, the time and date(s) when it happened and the names of those who were present. Write down what was said by all parties.

c. Involve a Union / Association Representative

If an employee is part of a union or association, a union or association representative may be a good person to get advice from and/or intervene on your behalf. This could involve use of the Joint Protocol for Enhancing Positive Relationships in the Workplace.

2.0 Confidentiality:

2.1 Procedural fairness requires that the respondent to a complaint be apprised of the nature of the complaint and by whom it has been made so that they have an opportunity to respond to the allegations. A copy of the Workplace Harassment Formal Complaint Form will be shared with employee respondents to a complaint. The disclosure of witness names and statements to the parties may also be necessary.

2.2 All correspondence and other documents generated under these Procedures must, subject to the Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, be marked "PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL" and be stored in a locked and secure file in Human Resource Services.

2.3 The Board may be required to provide information obtained during an investigation to an outside agency such as, but not limited to, police services, court or tribunal that has the right to require information otherwise protected by the Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

3.0 Misuse of Complaint Process and Reprisals:

3.1 If there is a determination on a balance of probabilities that a complaint has been filed in bad faith, the complaint process will discontinue and disciplinary action will occur.

3.2 Reprisals against individuals because they have reported a complaint are strictly forbidden. Alleged reprisals will be investigated as formal complaints and, if substantiated, are subject to the same consequences as complaints of harassment.

4.0 Rights of Complainants, Respondents and Witnesses:

4.1 Nothing in this Procedure denies or limits access to other avenues of redress available under the law or through the filing of a grievance or through progressive discipline. Where there is such an occurrence, this process will cease until the parties and their respective representatives have met with the Superintendent of Schools/Human Resource Services to determine whether a formal investigation must proceed or whether the complainant wishes to proceed under another process. Multiple processes will not be permitted to proceed concurrently.

4.2 Prior to initiating any complaint and throughout the complaint process, complainants have a right to assistance and support in the form of a union or association representative, if applicable.

4.3 Each employee has the right and is encouraged to contact his or her union/association for assistance and advice throughout this process.

4.4 The complainant is free to commence the complaint procedure at the formal stage outlined herein (see Appendix A). The complainant is also free to discontinue a complaint at any time. The Board, however, may deem the circumstances worthy of further investigation and initiate its own action.
